1. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] have been sentenced to terms of imprisonment ranging from one to three years on charges of having received letters relative to commercial transactions from abroad after the Rumanian Government had ordered the termination of commercial relations between foreign firms and private Rumanian citizens.

2. Twelve other individuals, not yet identified, have now been arrested on similar charges since the foreign firms they represented continued to correspond with them.

3. These charges are believed to be a pretext for the arrest of all individuals who have had relations with foreign firms.

This document is hereby regraded to
